FORTY-SIXTH CONGRSS.

DAILY PROCEEDINGS OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE.

Banking Interest---Bounties and Pensions to Educate the Colored People---The Poor Utes.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, December 10.—Senator Allison, from the Committee on Indian Affairs reported with two amendments on the joint resolution that the Secretary of the Interior be authorized through a commission of five persons to be appointed by the President to negotiate with the Ute Indians for their removal from Colorado. He stated that owing to the fact that the Utes would be in Washing during the recess, it was important that the resolution be passed.

Senator Cockrell objected to its present consideration. If there was any provision in it allowing the removal of the Indians to the Indian Territory. He gave notice that there would be a bitter opposition to it.

Senator Allison explained that the committee's amendments to the resolution expressly excluded such possibility, but Senator Cockrell declined to withdraw his objection and the resolution went over.

On motion of Senator Bayard the Senate adjourned until Monday next.

Senator Plumb introduced a bill to answer the revised statutes relating to taxes upon banks and bankers. It provides that no association shall be liable to the tax imposed by section 5254 of revised statutes upon any sum under the name of deposits which may be deposited with any other association, bank or banker, which is subject to taxation in such association. The bill also proposes to exempt from taxation deposits in provident associations, savings banks, and savings fund institutions, except in cases where deposits to the credit of one person of a firm or corporation exceeds two thousand dollars. In such cases the excess above that amount is to be liable to tax.

On motion of Mr. Maxey, the Senate then took up and passed the bill appropriating two hundred thousand dollars for the erection of such posts on or near the Rio Grande frontier as the Secretary of War may deem necessary for the adequate protection thereof.

Senator Cockrell then withdrew his objection to the consideration of the joint resolution for the removal of the Utes from Colorado and offered an amendment that the Utes be removed to some suitable place not in the Indian Territory. The amendment was agreed to and the resolution as reported and thus amended passed. On motion of Mr. Butler the Senate took up and passed the joint resolution authorizing the Secretary of War to lease the arsenal property in Charleston, S. C., to the trustees of the Holy Communion Church Institute for its use and accomodation. At 1:55 the Senate went into executive session and when the doors were reopened adjourned until Monday.

HOUSE.

Mr. Baker, of Indiana from committee on Appropriations reported fortification appropriation bill (appropriating $75,000 dollars,) which was ordered to be printed and recommitted. He gave notice that he would report it back to morrow morning and ask its consideration. Mr. M. C. Cord, of Iowa, from the committee on Manufactures reported back the joint resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution relative to trade marks, printed and recommitted.

The bill has been introduced by Mr. Acklen, of La., and referred for appointment by the President of the Commission Engineers to examine surveys of the contemplated canal across the Isthmus of Panama. The resolution offered by Mr. Shelley, of Alabama, and referred for the appointment of a select committee of five to investigate the causes of the negro exodus from the South and report such measures as exigency may require. The House is now considering the bill that was up yesterday as to unlading foreign ships at the ports of delivery.

After some discussion the bill relating to the unloading of foreign vessels at ports of delivery, was recommitted.

Mr. Converse, of Ohio, from the committee on public lands reported a bill amending the act of March 3rd, 1879, with reference to registry fees to be paid by homestead settlers. Passed. The House then went into committee of the whole on the bill authorizing the allowance for loss by leakage or casualty of spirits withdrawn from distillery warehouses for exportation. Adopted.

Mr. Hubbell, of Michigan, from the appropriations committee reported on the pension appropriation bill which was odered to be printed and recommitted. The bill appropriates $2,400,000 dollars, an increase of about three million over last year's appropriation.

The House committee on manufactures to-day authorized Representative McCord to report to the House at the earliest opportunity his joint resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution giving Congress power to grant protect and regulate the use of trade marks.

The sub-committee of the House committee on agriculture reported favorably to a full committee this morning in the House.

The bill providing for the repeal of so much of the sixth class of section 3,244 of the revised statutes as prohibits the farmers and planters from selling leaf tobacco at retail directly to consumers without a special tax, and allowing them to sell such tobacco of their own production, and to other persons than manufacturers without tax. The Committee instructed its chairman to report the bill to the House.

The House committee on education and labor listened to-day to arguments by Professor Paynter, of Fish University, of Nashville, Tennessee and J. Harvey, of Howard University, Washington, in advocacy of Mr. Goodes' bill to aid the education of the colored people by appropriating unclaimed bounties and the pay of colored soldiers. No final action will probably be taken on the bill until after the holiday recess.

The House then adjourned.

North Carolina Negroes Emigrating.

PETERSBURG, VA., Dec. 11.—A large number of colored emigrants from Goldsboro, N. C. have passed through here during the past few days enroute to Indiana. A noticeable feature of the emigration is a large number of women with infants in their arms. They go without a leader, and appear to be in good spirits.

LATE NEWS NOTES.

Mr. August Belmont, the banker, passed his 63d birthday Monday, and received the congratulations of many of his friends.

Jay Gould has ended a trip of 2,200 miles on railroads controlled by himself. The whole run was made in eight days.

Senator Baldwin, the new Senator from Michigan, is one of Detroit's millionaire boot and shoe merchants.

Charles J. Clarke, of Pittsburg, is said to have sold his interest in the Union Line to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for the snug sum of $500,000.

John Irome, a colored expressman, living in Chicago, hearing a noise in his barn, Monday night, went to investigate, when two shots were fired at him, one striking him in the head, the other in the breast, killing him. The murderer escaped.

The Indians in the Northwest Territory of the Dominion are getting very troublesome. They appear in war paint, say they are starving, and have threatened to take Fort McLeod. The government will have to fight or feed them.

By the final order of the New York Supreme Court, the Boston, Hoosac Tunnel and Western railroad have been put in possession of the last disputed land on the line, and before the the 15th instant, trains will be running through.

Miss Avonia Fairbanks, pupil of the Count Joannes, made an attempt Monday to horsewhip Mr. Fisk, proprietor of Taylor's Hotel, Jersey City, because of some uncomplimentary remarks made about her.

Mr. Elkins, ex-Delegate from New Mexico, who has made a fortune in mining speculations, has just bought a $100,000 house in New York. He is married to a daughter of Senator Davis, of West Virginia.

A freight engine ran into a passenger train Tuesday on the Delaware river branch of the Reading railroad, near Eddystone, Pennsylvania. Both engines and a passenger car were were wrecked, but no one was injured.

Brevet Major Frederick Rosencranz, of the Sixteenth United States infantry, died at Fort Riley, Kansas, last Sunday evening and was buried there Tuesday with military honors. During the civil war he was aid-de camp at the headquarters of the Army of the Potomac.

Mortimer H. Van Klieck, mate of the ship Cashmere, at Boston from the Philippines, who has been arrested in Brooklyn, New York, for the murder of one of the seamen on his ship and badly wounding another, has been remanded. He declares the charge malicious.

The schooner George L. Brown was run into and sunk off Chester, Pa., Tuesday by the steamship Norman. The schooner was cut almost in halves. The crew narrowly escaped with their lives and lost everything aboard. The steamer was not damaged.

There was some little excitement in the United States Senate Wednesday afternoon, occasioned by discussion of the resolution of Senator Davis for a statement of the amounts paid out to the different States on account of war claims since 1866. It is understood that the statement will show that the Southern States have not received so much on this account as the other States. The Republicans opposed the passage of the resolution.

SENATOR BAYARD.

THE ATTENTION NOW PAIDTO HIS RESOLUTION.

The Impulse of his Resolution to Make United States Notes Receiv-able.

Cincinnati Enquirer.

Senator Bayard's joint resolution to make the United States Treasury notes receivable for all dues to the United States, excepting duties on imports, and to take away from them their legal-tender qualities, is attracting a good deal of attention. It is regarded with much favor by many Democratic Senators and members who have not agreed with Senator Bayard heretofore in his financial measures. A good many prominent Democrats from all sections of the country are saying that it effers a basis on which all the Democrats of the country can unite. Senator Bayard himself holds this view. To-day, in conversation with your correspondent, he said:

"It seems to me that this is a measure on which every Democrat in the country can unite. There is nothing in any Democratic platform which has been promulgated anywhere in this country up to this time that conflicts with this resolution. The Democratic party has always declared in favor of honest money, and now it is in a position to secure honest money by taking a single step, and that a short one. I do not touch the question of whether the paper circulation shall consist of Treasury notes or National-bank notes. The resolution does not contemplate that. That question can be left until it is time to meet it. But I simply propose that now, when Treasury notes are payable in gold, and are being paid in gold, we shall take away the legal-tender quality—which Democrats have always held they never ought to have had—and thereby insure to the people of the country that hereafter they shall not be subjected to loss by having the currency on the basis of which they make their contracts depreciate on their hands."

"Would the adoption of your resolution and the repeal of the legal-tender quality of the greenback affect the volume of greenbacks in circulation?" asked your correspondent.

"Not at all," he replied. "They would still remain in circulation as Treasury notes, and would be redeemable in coin by the Government as they are now. There would be no appreciable difference, because they are to-day equivalent with coin. The real difference would be, that no one would be forced to take them,—that is, we should abandon the position of making them arbitrarily legal-tenders without regard to their value, and should make them what they ought to be—Treasury notes redeemable in coin. This would make them better money than they are now, and of course, they would circulate as freely as they do now."

"Would not the adoption of your resolution force the banks to keep a coin reserve instead of a greenback reserve, as they do now, and so force them to put in circulation the greenbacks which are now hoarded in their vaults?"

"Not necessarily," he replied. "The law authorizes the banks to use greenbacks as a reserve. They could do so still, but the difference would be this: If you take a $5 National-bank note, for instance to a bank and ask to have it redeemed, the bank can offer you a $5 greenback, and you must accept it, because it is a legal-tender; but if this resolution should become a law, and the legal-tender quality of the greenback should be taken away, the bank would be forced to give you coin for your bank-bill if you demanded it. The bank, of course, would take its greenbacks to the Treasury and get coin for them. So it would be protected."

"What do you think of the prospect for the adoption of your resolution?"

"I do not know," he replied. "I hope it will be—first, because I believe it would be the right thing to do; and, second, because I think it would be sound policy on the part of the Democratic party. If the Democratic majority in Congress will take this step, it will cut the ground right out from under the feet of our opponents, and it will very greatly increase the faith of the people in us. In my judgement the people of the North do not cherish any sectional bitterness toward the South. They are not frightened by the cry of a 'Solid South,' but they are not quite certain whether the South can be trusted on questions relating to the currency. If the Southern and Western Democrats would pass such a measure as this it would insure honest money, and would give the North confidence in their financial intentions."

The Senator's attention being called to a criticism in the New York Herald that he had not risen to the high plane of putting himself in line with the President's recommendations, he replied:

"All I have to say about that is that I am at least honest in what I have proposed, and mean what I say."

STATE NEWS.

GRANVILLE.

WILTON, Dec. 10.—Mr. Lewis H. Grissom, of Brassfield township, took to himself for a better half, last Wednesday, a Miss Reade, whose paternal mansion is near Blue Wing. The Rev. Mr. Hurly officiated,

The coming storms will be missed by Joseph Morton who fell dead at his breakfast table last Sunday morning—some say from poison, and others say a long debauch was the cause.

Not long since Thomas A. Bale and B. W. May found the largest snake ever seen in this section, making its way into winter quarters. They saw where it had crossed a sandy place in the ridge path, where its sign has been seen once or twice a year for the last forty years. It looked like a log had been drawn across the path, and its track has never been known to vary twenty-five yards from the same place. It generally crossed in the last of the Spring and again in the last of the Fall. It was near a large boulder, its supposed wintering place, and when overtaken made no effort to save or defend itself. One foot from the head it measured three feet in circumference and was seventeen and a half feet long. Its kind is unknown. W.

HARNETT.

HARRINGTON, Dec. 10—The weather still continues warm and delightful.

Farmers are nearly all done sowing wheat, and no more oats will be sowed till spring.

Married, in Barbecue township on 3rd instant, by L. M. N. McDonald, Esq., John A. McDonald, who has experienced the inclemency of forty-nine winters, to Miss Kate Darrach, whose brow has been fanned by the gentle zephers of only nineteen springs.

Several trifling cases were up before 'Squire Marsh last Monday and appropriately disposed of.

Common schools are generally going on in this county except in cases where the committee are too contrary to agree.

John Bishop, of Upper Little River township, is the oldest tax-payer in the county, being in his eighty-seventh year. He was a soldier in the war of 1812, and bids fair to draw his pension for several years yet.

BUNCOMBE.

ASHEVILLE, Dec. 8.—The weather today is exceedingly bright, and trade seems to be lively especially in the produce line, which bring a better price this season than it has been known to do for years. Several new mercantile establishments are going up in the village, and every house in the place that can be occupied both for business and dwelling purposes is now full and more wanted. This is said to be a thriving aspect.

On last Wednesday evening the Presbyterian Church of this place was filled to overflowing to witness the marriage ceremony of Mr. Robert B. Sutton, of Halifax county, to Miss Sallie Morrison of Buncombe, daughter of the Rev. Wm. N. Morrison of this place. The father of the bride officiating.

Rev. John Mitchell who has been for some four years pastor of the Baptist church at this place and who is probably better know as honest John Mitchell (the noblest work of God) resigned his station last week for new fields. This change of his is very much regretted by the people here, though his place is to be filled by Rev. Mr. Dickson of Chapel Hill, a worthy man and fine preacher—so said to be.

The young people of the village on last Friday night had an old-time candy pulling. The affair came off at the "Ballard's," and if the truth were known more candy found its way on the clothes of the guests and the floor of the reception room than to the place where it was really intended to go. The affair, however, was a very enjoyable one, and as the holidays are approaching, we hope that we may soon see the like again

FRANKLIN.

FRANKLINTON, Dec. 6.—The weather is warm and cloudy, with some rain. The earth is drier beneath the surface than it has been for many years.

Trade is tolerable here yet. A few days since W. L. McGhee bought of Robert May the heaviest bag of cotton ever before brought to this market. It weighed 887 pounds.

Sandling Hendling died in Brassfields township, Granville county, a few days ago. Age ninety years.

W. H. Beddingfield was elected Mayor of Franklinton last Tuesday night.

An old gentleman was in Franklinton a few days ago who proposes to be one of a hundred men to subscribe ten thousand dollars a piece to employ a Potterizer general for the benefit of all those who refuse to pay security money or any other honest obligation. He likes money very well.

Walter A. Bookram, colored, has opened a grog shop in Franklinton. This makes the third one in the last forty days.

Last Sunday night the Rev. H. H. Gibbons preached a most eloquent and able sermon in the M. E. Church here.

Thomas N. Haswell has purchased Amanda G. Haswell's land in Franklinton township. Benjamin G. Morton has purchased the Champion estate in the same township.

Free Masons on their way to the Grand Lodge, and Methodist preachers on their way to the Conference, were quite plentiful in town the first of this week.

T. T. Bobbitt, and Colonel J. Uzzle, Baltimore, were in town this week.

Madame L. J Velasquez, formerly a Confederate soldier, is in New York city preparing to publish her book—Woman in Battle—under its new name, "The Adventures of L. J. Velasquez, the Great American Heroine," and her paper, The North and South American Journal.

PASQUOTANK.

ELIZABETH CITY, Dec. 9.—The weather is real pleasant, threatening a storm at the present writing.

Trade is quite brisk. Corn beginning to move. The lumber trade is reviving.

Married, on the evening of the 2d, in the M. E. Church, Mr. Gideon Hughes to Miss Florence Rhodes.

Sorry to chronicle the death of Mr. Frederick Bray, in the 45th year of his age.

Mr. William Pleasant had his hands and face severely burned while extinguishing the flames on his dwelling on last Sunday.

The churches were well attended last Sabbath, night and morning.

Mr. James Sanders is erecting a three story building on Main street.

Tiber Creek Canal is again talked of. The bridge over Tiber Creek, which had been damaged by the storm, is now in good order. F.

A Tragedy of Long Ago.

At Point Rock, west of Lampasas, Texas, the skeleton of a man named John Roan was found in a cavern among the rocks November 24th. Near the skeleton was the rusty blade of a bowie-knife, with the handle rotten with age. On a smooth limestone rock was carved in capital letters the following:

I fell in here four days ago when the Indians were running me. I am starving. If Bill don't find me to-morrow I will run this knife through my heart. I can't stand to starve to death.

(Signed) JOHN ROAN.

November 1, 1850.

It seems Roan had fallen through the aperture twenty-five feet.

A Canadian Counterfeiting Scheme.

MONTREAL, Dec. 9.—Information being received from New York detectives that a resident of Montreal was in treaty with a New York engraver to print one hundred thousand Canadian three-cent postage stamps, a police officer proceeded to New York, and there learned that a man named Jackques Narboune, residing here, had given the order for the stamps, and supplied the engraver with plates to print them from. Narboune, who has been passing himself off as a foreign count, was arrested, and a stamp bearing the impression of the Western receiving house, in Montreal, was found in his possession. The prisoner has confederates at Ottawa.

The Most Popular Method.

Louisville Courier Journal.

A Boston minister is delivering a series of sermons on "How shall we get to Heaven?" Rev. Murray thought a 2:40 horse and a buckboard wagon a good method; but the most popular means seems to be the coal-oil can.

William Warts, conductor of a freight train on the Philadelphia and Reading railroad, was found dead on the track at Palo Alto, Pa., last Monday night, with both legs and arms cut off. It is supposed that he fell in attempting to jump on a passing freight train.

A dispatch from Fair Play, Colorado, reports the discovery of uranium in the Sacramento mining district. The mineral is found in Bohemia, but never before in this country, as far as known. The ore runs 60 per cent., and uranium is worth one thousand dollars per ton.

An English woman, now in this country, has ordered from a New York jeweler a bangle bracelet which is to cost the comfortable sum of $40,000. It is made like the bangles of the harem, of beaten gold, and is set with every known jewel.

OUR INTEREST CHARGE.

MR. WOOD'S PROPOSITION TO REDUCE THE RATE.

An Answer to Secretary Sherman's Objections---Two Hundred Millions to be Saved on Bonds.

New York Herald.

In your paper of yesterday, in speaking of the two propositions to refund the maturing bonds of the Government introduced in the House by General Garfield and myself, you refer to that presented by me in the following lines:

"Mr. Wood's bill strikes us not as a measure for the promotion, but for the obstruction of refunding. It forbids the payment of more than three and a half per cent interest on any bonds hereafter issued by the Government. It is not probable that such bonds could be sold to any such extent as is necessary within the ensuing two years, and the effect of the passage of Mr. Wood's bill would be simply to arrest refunding and prevent a reduction of the present high rates of interest."

Permit me in reply to avail myself of your columns to defend my position and to show that the rate of interest proposed by me—viz., 3½ per cent, is sufficient to enable such bonds to be negotiated at par. If I am correct in this, the difference between 4 per cent. interest and 3 per cent. on $800,000,000 for fifty years, as suggested will aggregate a saving of $200,000,000 for the period that the bonds will have to run, an enormous relief to the tax-burdened people of this otherwise prosperous and happy country. It may be well, however, to state that the bill presented by me is intended to apply only to the balance of the $1,500,000,000 already authorized to be funded under the acts of 1869 and 1870, and not to the future maturing bonds amounting to $782,671-700 coming due in 1889 and 1881. I am preparing a bill for that purpose, which will be presented and referred within a few days. The question at issue however, remains the same, as in that bill I shall propose also to limit the interest to 3½ per cent.

LONG TERMS AND LOW RATES.

Though the length of this communication requires apology, yet I am sure that the gravity and supreme importance of the subject will justify it. I have, therefore, gone into the question somewhat in detail, not only in justification of the lower interest bearing bond proposed, but also to explain other provisions which I shall incorporate in my bill. The four per cent. bonds of the government have within a day or two sold at a premium equal to three per cent., exclusive of the accrued interest. At 108 88 they would pay just three and one-half per cent. per annum for the time they have to run, or in other words at a premium of eight and seven-eigths per cent. they would be the equivalent of a three and one-half per cent. bond at par having twenty-eight years to run. The premium at which they are now selling has been reached in the face of the increasing activity in business throughout the country, the activity in the money market and the high rates for money for business uses incident to the movements of the crops in the fall of the year and the enormous increase in values at the stock exchange and in commodities generally, and the existing possibility that the government may again become a seller of four per cent. bonds at par. With the returning ease in money which invariably follows the crop movement, and the lighter demand and lower rates which prevail throughout the succeeding and greater portion of each year, and with the possibility of any further issue of four per cent. bonds by the government removed, there is little doubt that the four per cent. bonds would quickly advance to a premium at which they would not yield much if anything over three and one-half per cent. per annum on the investment, and thus establish par as the value of a three and one-half per cent. bond of the United States, having twenty-eight years to run. Giving to a new three and one-half per cent. funding loan a longer period to run—say fifty years—would impart to it an additional value, which would render it the equivalent at par of a four per cent. bond having only twenty-eight years to run at a premium of from six to seven and one-half per cent.

SAFE INVESTMENTS.

The British consols bearing 3 per cent. interest are selling in London at nearly par. As has already been shown above, a United States bond bearing 3½ per cent. and having fifty years to run, would pay 3 per cent. per annum at $112.91, and the present 4 per cent. bonds having twenty-eight years to run would pay 3 per cent. per annum at $118.85. It cannot be questioned that the credit of the United States Government is fully equal to that of Great Britain, or of any other nation in the world; and in this respect there is no reason why the United States should hereafter pay a higher rate of interest on its public debt than that paid by the most favored borrower among the nations. The only difference in favor of Great Britain as compared with the United States is that in the former is a larger aggregate of accumulated and inherited wealth in the hands of those who live upon their incomes without business or occupation which will not encounter the risks of business at any price, and must consequently be safely invested at a low rate of interest in the public funds. This class of capital is, however, rapidly accumulating in this country, and it is believed has already reached proportions sufficient to absorb and carry the entire debt of the Government at a low rate of interest, whatever may be the demand for or the value of money for business purposes for which the class of capital referred to is not available. The difference above referred to in favor of Great Britian is to a considerable extent offset, moreover, by the fact that British consols are seldom bought outside of British territory, while the bonds of the United States are favorably known and invested in to a greater or less extent in every civilized country on the globe.

A Novelty in Roses.

Birds of the new striped Tea Rose "American Banner," were worn for the first time in New York, by the ladies waiting on the tables at the great Fair of the Seventh Regiment, on the evening of Wednesday, December 3rd. This rarity among flowers from its novelty and scarcity is likely to become in great demand this winter; but as it can only be supplied in small quantities, it will cost more than its weight in gold!

New York Sharpers Outwitted.

A Pittsburg (Pa.) dispatch says Mr. T. F. Scott, an elderly man and a wealthy merchant of that city, was in New York a few days ago, when a young man accosted him on Broadway, who called him by name, and said he was a nephew of John Shoenberger, of Pittsburg. He persuaded Mr. Scott to go with him into a room on the top of a tall building somewhere on Broadway to identify him, as he said he had drawn a lottery prize. The old confidence game was then played, but Mr. Scott would not lose any money, and attempted to leave the room, but a burly negro prevented him. The young man and another man demanded $1,500 and said if they did not get the money he would soon be floating in the East river. He had only a little money, but they said his check would do. He agreed to this, but drew the check on a bank where he had no deposit, and was then released by the men, who seemed to know his financial standing. The old gentleman left New York hurriedly and did not have time to hunt the men up again. Naturally the check was not paid.

GOSSIP FOR THE LADIES.

What Distant Call?

Shy tender stars sedate and sweet
Round weary Earth's pale pillow press;
Night cloaks her at the golden feet,
And they are shod with silentness.

Tranced in a weird colossal dream,
The mountains shadowy arms outfling;
Around the silent forests gleam
And every leaf is listening.

What distant call? What suddenstirred
Eching thrill from breast to brow?
Was it the nightingale I heard?
Or was it, best beloved, thou?

A family is like an equipage. First, the father, the draught-horse; next the boys, the wheels, for they are always running around; then the girls, they are surrounded by fellows; the baby occupies the lapboard; and the mother—well, what's a wagon without a tongue, anyhow?

"The old aunt who is a confiante of youthful troubles, and helps to smooth family jars; the maiden sister, who acts as nurse when there is sickness in the house; the middle aged unmarried daughter, who keeps house for an invalid father and mother, and soothes the declining years of the old people by her dutiful attendance; all these are types of women who may be found in no small numbers among 'ugly girls.'" —London Truth.

An American lady, who has lived in England, says: "For the street, English women dress horribly, but for dinner parties and balls they are lovely. They wear usually either white or black, and their skins and complexions are dazzling. But every English woman when she gets to be thirty-five or forty has a rash breaking out on her noise. I believe it is because they drink so much. They are always drinking wine and all that with their meals. They don't get faded and worn, looking as women do; but they get very stout, and their beautiful complexions get to be really 'beery,'"

"Are you fond of game?" asked Belinda's husband, sticking his fork into the canvas-back. Mrs. Goodington did not answer for a moment. It was clear that querry had called up recollections of the past. Looking up with a smile perambulrting around the deep ruts Old Time had worn in her kindly face, she said, "When Daniel was alive we used to have a good rubber of whisp now and then; but as for your newfangled games, such as eureka, cabbage and physique, I'm too old to learn any of them. But don't mind me, Theodore; if the young folks want to play, let them. I would be the last to interfere with any of their harmless recriminations."

Regarding a recent Washington interview with George Q. Cannon, the Utah Delegate, who is reported saying that the Mormon people will abide by the decision of the Supreme Court with reference to polygamy, and would not violate the law, the United States district attorney at Ogden, Utah, says the last grand jury had sufficient evidence of polygamous marriages having taken place lately in defiance of the law. The News, Mormon Church organ, referring to the reported interview, says it should be taken with several grains of salt, and intimates that the report is fraudulent.

Senator Blaine, in an interview at Boston, said he would be compelled to vote against Secretary Sherman's recommendation that the legal-tender clause be stricken from the greenbacks as he thought it would work injustice to a majority of the people. He thought it best to have each bank redeem in coin as soon as there was sufficient accumulation of it. He would let the legal-tender notes alone for the present rather than provoke angry financial excitement at the present period, when the country is awakening from its business lethargy.

The Florence Nightingale of the Nursery.

The following is an extract from a letter written to the German Reformed Messenger, at Chambersburgh, Penn:—

A BENEFACTRESS.

Just open the door for her, and Mrs. Winslow will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the Nursery. Of this we are so sure, that we will teach our "Susy" to say, "A blessing on Mrs. Winslow" for helping her to survive and escape the griping, colicking, and teething siege. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup relieves the child from pain, and cures dysentery and diarrhœa. It softens the gums, reduces inflamation, cures wind colic, and carries the infant safely through the teething period. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it—nothing less. We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—know her only through the preparation of her "Soothing Syrup for Children Teething." If we had the power we would make her, as she is a physical saviour to the infant race. Sold by all druggis's. 25 cents a bottle.

NEGRO COLONIZATION.

EXODUS MOVEMENT IN NORTH CAROLINA.

How the Indiana Fever Commenced Among the Blacks---Objects of the Colonizers---What is Said.

Correspondence Washington Post.

GOLDSBORO, N. C., Dec. 8.—The exodus here appears to be temporarily suspended, owing first, to the want of money on the part of those who have been influenced to quit their homes. There was a little band to start North from here to-night, but for the reason stated, did not get away. Another temporary stoppage is the position taken by the people and the press, who have been seconded by the railroads of North Carolina in refusing to sell the negroes emigrant or reduced tickets and charge them local rates. The attitude of the Post in not accepting the statement of the refugees, but uniformly confuting them by most satisfactory testimony, is commended by all except the negroes who have the "Indiana fever." Its utterances are being liberally copied and circulated by the local press and the people who are active in attempting a suppression of the scheme. These influences, however, just now are like straws against a rapid current, being combatted by the superstition and avarice of the people whose good is effected, coupled with the fallacious inducements, lying promises and threats that have actuated them in their flight.

From Mr. A. J. Galloway, southern agent of the Atlantic coast line, I have the following resume of the incipient movement occurring within his personal knowledge, which I give as near as possible in his own language. The statement was given voluntarily and without prompting from the writer. Mr. Galloway said: "The movement began with the exodus of about sixty-five negroes from Lenoir county the 17th of November. Being told by the Bay line authorities to represent them in getting the negroes North by that line, I started to Lenoir county, in a buggy, from Goldsboro. In approaching a negro church near Best's station, in Wayne county (or rather about the Lenoir line), in which about two hundred of them were at service, I was seen by some of them and the meeting broke up soon after. I asked for Samuel Perry, who had incited the movement with another negro named Williams, and was told that he was not there and that Williams was at La Grange, three miles off. The negroes then said, 'You are the agent of the society and have come to help us people off.' (They had been told that if they sold everything and got as far as Washington that the Emigrant Aid and Colonization societies would send them to Indiana.) I replied, 'No, I represent the Bay line and am opposed to your going. The representations made to you are not true, and were manufactured here. You ought to stay here, where you will do better; but if you are determined to go, why go by the Bay line.' I asked them what was the trouble? They replied: 'We are not making as much money as we will in Kansas or Indiana. (They had the two places confused.) We make heaps of money out there. They were, they said, to get seventy-five cents and $1 for farm labor, and could buy land cheap on time.

"I went on to La Grange and saw several white gentlemen, and told them I did not come to take the negroes away. Some of the whites appeared to feel bad about the movement at that time, and others were indifferent. I talked with the negro Williams as to the route, etc., and he said he had 1,500 ready to start, and every one that could raise the means would go from Lenoir county. He had already contracted to send them via Washington, but would break the contract the next day if I said so. The Bay line subsequently instructed me not to take the negroes at all. I am satisfied that Perry and Williams were carrying them to Indiana for political purposes. They exerted great influence over them, and worked on their duplicity. Perry at first secured a fee of twenty-five cents each for registering their names, but subsequently increased the price to $2, which he compelled them to pay, ostensibly to meet his expenses to Indiana as their advance agent. He was afterwards indicted for forgery, and was compelled to deposit a collateral of $100 before a magistrate's court at La Grange. This he compelled the negroes to pay by assessment. He finally defaulted and ran away, leaving his $100 behind. The second movement (of those part of whom are now in Washington) was by pre-arrangement. They came up from Lenoir Monday and went through last Tuesday, December 3. Of their subsequent movements you are aware."

The Second Congressional division, which is the only section affected by the exodus, comprises ten counties as follows: Wayne, Lenoir, Jones, Craven, Greene, Wilson, Edgecombe, Halifax, Northampton and Warren. The total population of the district is about one hundred and sixty-five thousand, or ninety-five thousand blacks and seventy thousand whites. In the campaign of 1876 there were 21,060 Republicans and eleven thousand eight hundred and seventy-four Democratic votes cast. The products of the ten counties are cotton, principally, and naval stores, staves, shingles, wheat and tobacco, the latter two in great disproportion. Lenoir county has been principally affected by the exodus, but Greene and Wilson counties have also felt it considerably. Johnson county has one thousand two hundred negroes awaiting a report of Charles E. Scott, their agent, who went to Indiana last week, and from eight hundred to one thousand in Wayne are subject to the same arrangement. The principal towns in the district are New Berne, with twenty-two thousand white and four thousand four hundred black inhabitants; Goldsboro, with two thousand whites and one thousand five hundred blacks; Wilson, with two thousand five hundred of both, and Tarboro about the same, but with an excess of negroes; Kinston, in Lenoir, has two thousand, with the majority black, and James City, opposite New Berne, at the junction of the Trent and Neuse rivers, has one thousand five hundred, exclusively black. The statistics are presented to demonstrate in what condition the threatened stampede of blacks, if it becomes general, as indicated, will leave the Second Congressional or "black" district. The negroes have been told that until the 1st of May, 1880, they will be allowed transportation gratis from Washington, from which point a special train will run weekly for their accommodation. These and many other equally ridiculous and false inducements have been held out.

It is a general belief that there is no remedy for Consumption, and possibly in some cases the assertion may be correct. We know however of many cures made by Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup and will guarantee positive relief to the sufferer in every instance.

DAILY NEWS

GEO. C. JORDAN, Editor and Prop'r.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1879.

THE Springfield Republican wants Grant pensioned rather than re-elected. And pray what is to be done with Belknap, Babcock, Boss Shepherd, Joyce, Deacon McKee, and the rest of the gang?

GENERAL GRANT has written to the Hon. Hamilton Fish, Jr., stating that he will not be able to visit New York until his return from the West Indies and Mexico next spring. If he changes his programme he will notify Mr. Fish.

THE Utes say the Thornburgh fight was an accident. This is why we maintain that O. O. Howard is the most invaluable campaigner ever sent out west. He kills horses and tires the troops in maneuvering to get the Indians in his rear, but he never has such an accident as a battle.

MR. HAYES seems to think that his position on the legal tender question is misunderstood; but in this he is mistaken. Nobody cares enough about his position to misunderstand it. Mr. Hayes makes a first-rate President when he smiles, and keeps quiet, and merely draws his salary.

A strange case is reported from Ohio of a middle-aged man, well dressed and well mannered, who has been trying for nine months past to remember who he is and where he lives—thus far without success.

After next year's elections there will be a number of middle-aged and elderly men in this country who will envy this Ohio man his happy gift of oblivion.

A LARGE crowd of "fleeing blacks" passed through St. Louis Sunday, but they were "fleeing" from Kansas, on their way back to Mississippi, whence they had been seduced by the agents of Gov. St. John, under promise of immediate affluence on their arrival in Kansas. They got neither affluence nor sympathy from the affectionate Republicans of that Republican State.

THE Chicago Tribune says that if the evidence taken before the sub-committee in the Kellogg-Spofford case is to be believed, Spofford is the worst damaged. Our worthy contemporary evidently means that Spofford is damaged if the lies of Kellogg's witnesses are to be believed. Mr. Hill did compell some of them to stray within sight of the truth; but mightly against their will.

A BIG INJUN IN BOSTON.—Standing Bear, the Ponca chief who has been visiting Boston, is described as a man of immense frame and imposing presence. He has peculiarly sad eyes and a worn and despondent aspect; but as he speaks he grows earnest, and his face lights up. Brighteyes, the Indian girl who interprets his speeches, is remarkably intelligent. She is 24 years old, and intends to study at Wellesley College.

It isn't pleasant to be informed that ten or twenty thousand counterfeit trade dollars are in circulation in New York city. Yet the authorities say that Rooney, who has just been arrested, and his gang have started an enormous number of them on their travels. Any person who innocently passes one of them is in danger of arrest, and it is difficult for non-exports to distinguish the good from the bad. There is consolation, however, in the assurance that Rooney isn't likely to coin any more spurious money for a while.

IT is not probable that John Sherman will be very thankful to the Chicago Tribune for this paragraph:

"Congressman Keifer, of Ohio, says that Secretary Sherman diminished his chances for the Republican nomination for the Presidency at least twenty per cent by the financial 'suggestions' or 'recommendations' in his recent report. As Sherman had a mighty small chance before to get nominated under the most favorable circumstances, and as his friends now concede he has lost twenty per cent of it, the small part of the smallness is scarcely discernible without the aid of a microscope."

SENATOR JONES, of Nevada, is a clear-headed business man. Being interviewed in New York the other day, by a representative of the Inter-Ocean, he expressed these opinions:

"With regard to the silver bill, the Senator says there is not the slightest danger of its being disturbed. The reserve of $20,000,000 of silver in the treasury has done more than one thing to restore and maintain confidence in resumption, set prices on an upward turn, and put the wheels of industry in motion. The present business activity and flow of gold is based on starvation in Europe and good crops in this country, and when local and temporary causes are removed and gold again flows to Europe, as it must in time, we will either have to increase our volume of currency by silver or silver certificates, or encounter another panic." When asked about the destruction of legal-tenders, he said the redemption of greenbacks in gold and their final retirement will not keep an ounce or dollar more of gold in the country, when the European demand sets in, than if it was not in the Treasury and not among the people, that idea is a fallacy advanced by some journals here. The demand for gold abroad will lead to its being bought by money brokers and shipped just as we ship so much wheat or produce; and when that demand comes, however great it may be, the holders of greenbacks, instead of rushing to the Treasury for gold, will hold greenbacks with just as much confidence in its value as a government bond. They are likely to be at a premium over gold. On being asked if he thought the currency was entitled at the present time, the Senator said: "Some of these pawn brakers down in Wall street will tell you it is inflatted. They want to buy a thing for a piece of guano and sell it for gold. If it is inflated, it is inflated in the right way. Prices have risen and will continue to rise for the next five years, and you tell your friends to buy real estate in New York or Chicago, and they will double their money in the next three years. I've got some that I will sell and take ninety-cent so-called silver dollars for instantissimo. The growth of this country in population and its business interests will require, ten years from now, five times the amount of currency now in circulation, and the people will wake up to it before long. The banks will be compelled to bank on every bond they can reach to supply the demand.'"

Men Lost in the Fisheries—A Fearful Record.

A carefully prepared report from Gloucester, Massachusetts, gives a fearful record of the men lost in the fisheries from that port and vessels wrecked during the past year. The statement, so far as the loss of life is concerned, is entirely unprecedented in the history of the business. Scarcely a week during the year but has, witnessed some destruction. Thirteen vessels went down, one hundred and forty-three men were drowned, 56 women were widowed and one hundred and fifty children made fatherless by the single February gale. So overwhelming a calamity could not fail to awaken a generous sympathy, and $28,216.72 was contributed to feed, clothe and shelter the survivors of the lost mariners. The February gale, however, furnishes but part of the direful history of the Gloucester fisheries for 1879. In all thirty vessels, aggregating one thousand nine hundred and eighty tons, comprising over a tenth part of the fishing tonage of the port, valued at $118,789, all of which were insured in mutual system for $95,185, sailed to return no more, and two hundred and forty lives have been lost, leaving 88 widows and two hundred and nineteen fatherless children. There are also two vessels now absent for which grave fears are entertained, the Andrew Lighton and the Harry C. Mackey. If these do not soon return it will add twenty-two more to the number.

Self-Confessed Perjurers.

When three years ago, Joseph L. Lewis, of Hoboken, N. J., bequeathed one million of dollars to the United States government and thdn died without known relatives, there appeared an alleged widow, who called herself Catharine Lewis, who contested the will. The case has been in the courts ever since she put in her alleged marriage certificate, dated in 1850, and to substantiate it put in the certificate of Frank Fleet and Mary Reed, said to have been married at the same time. Monday last the government introduced E. J. Couldwell who testified that he helped the woman and another to put up the job. He helped them prepare the certificate and furnished an old frame to give it the appearance of age. The alleged widow had often told him that she never saw Lewis and asked him how Lewis looked. Frank Fleet testified that his previous testimony, which was favorable to the widow, was perjury. William Arnoux, who had certified to the authenticity of certain documents used by the claimant, testified that he too was a prejurer. He had been promised $1,000 for his testimony. More startling developments are promised.

A Joke.

Richmond Dispatch.

The New York Times says with admirable simplicity that "when the management of the Democratic party has passed so completely into the hands of its worst men that the decayed aristocracy of the section (South) stands aloof and talks of Grant as a deliverer, it is easier to decry motives than to forecast results."

The Times is not right in its assumption that "the decayed aristocracy" of the South are talking of Grant as a deliverer. But if they were doing what a few extremists are doing in that line, would not by any means be attributable to the cause mentioned by the Times, but to the infamous course of the Republican party towards this section. It is to bring defeat upon Blaine, Conkling, and the rest of the wavers of the bloody shirt, and to elect a Dictator or Protector who would be elevated above the plane of the outrage-shriekers, that the few Grant Democrats in the South have assumed the position which they occupy.

Cincinnati, in its reception of Gen. Grant yesterday, was determined to outdo Chicago in the matter of noise, at least. If admiration and appreciation are to be truly measured by din, General Grant ought to be satisfied. In China and Japan he was welcomed with gongs. At San Francisco he was received with three hundred guns. At Cincinnati, the welcoming chorus consisted of simultaneous salutes from loud-mouthed cannon in Covington, Newport and Cincinnati, all the bells in all the three cities were rung in unison, while all the steamboats at the levees—there are a great multitude of them just now—rung their bells and sound their steam whistles. Some of these steamboats have "calliopes," also, and these atrocious concussers of the air contributed their quota to the neplus ultra of noise. Certainly if General Grant likes this sort of thing—as it would seem that he does—he ought to be gratified with this reception, even if Mr. Theodore Thomas is not. The latter artist, if he have any of the qualities of Hogarth's "Enraged Musician" in his temperament, will be desirous, after such discord as this reception, to shake the dust of Cincinnati from his shoes forever.

In the United States Circuit Court at Columbia, S. C., last Tuesday, Judges Bond and Bryan presiding, an order was passed directing the receiver of the South Carolina Railroad Company to pay the coupons and interest on all the first mortgage bonds up to the 1st of July, 1879. In the same case an order was also passed directing a referee to call in all the second mortgage bondholders, and to report upon the first mortgage, non-mortgage and all the other liens on the property of the road by the first of April next. The object of the order is to ascertain all the liens against the road, so that when the sale is ordered bidders may know the exact condition of the property they are bidding for.

New Year's Day in New York.

The new York ladies are again in the field against the practice of tendering spirituous liquors to their gentlemen visitors on New Year's Day. In addition to signing formal pledges to use their influence every way against it, there will be a series of conferences this week, with a view of bringing about some kind of organization, with a view of making their work more effective. They have no desire to court publicity, however, and their proceedings, consequently will not be heralded in the newspapers. They believe that work of this character, to be worth anything, should be, as far as possible, quiet work. Many representative families are taking an active part in the movement.

Victoria's Love for Her Servants.

Queen Victoria's appreciation of faithful service has always done her honor. For twenty-five years John Grant was head keeper at Balmoral, and a great favorite of the Prince Consort. When in 1873, his failing health obliged this old servant to give up his work, the Queen gave him a cottage near the castle and often visited him during his last illness. He died lately, just as the court was about to return to England, and in order "to pay the last mark of respect" to his memory the Queen delayed her journey several days.

General Grant now definitely writes that it will be impossible for him to visit New York and Brooklyn this winter.

The special committee on organization of the National Agricultural Society held a preliminary meeting in New York Monday, to consider a constitution and arrange a plan of organization.

AN OLD RIFLE.

Whose Mechanism Shows that its Maker was a Genius.

Wilmington (Del.) Every Evening.

Nathaniel Melchior, Jr., the gunsmith at No. 214 King street, has in his possession a breech-loading rifle which is a veritable curiosity. With its history he is unacquainted, only knowing that it was sent to him about six months since by a brother who resides in Baltimore. The date on the barrel shows that it was made in one thousand five hundred and eighty-six, nearly three hundred years ago, and consequently not long after the invention of rifles. Upon this subject Chambers' Encyclopedia says:

"As early as one thousand four hundred and ninety-eight, the citizens of Leipzig possessed the germ of the future rifle, for their arms had a grooved bore, but the grooves were straight. Not many years after, in one thousand five hundred and twenty, Augustin Kutter (or Koster) of Nuernburg was celebrated for his rose or star-grooved barrels, in which the grooves had a spiral form. It took its name from the rose-like shape of the bore at the muzzle; and, setting aside superiority of workmanship subsequently developed, Kutter's arm was the veritable rifle, and to him, therefore, as far as history shows, is due the invention of this weapon."

The rifle in Melchoir's possession, considering its age and the fact that it was entirely handmade, is a marvel of ingenious workmanship. The stock is made of applewood, the barrel, lock, trigger, etc., of steel, upon which scrolls and grotesque human heads, in raised work, were cut by patient, tedious work by chisels. The barrel has a bell-shaped mouth and is rifled with a fine spiral grove. Underneath the pan, the weapon having of course a flint lock, is a kind of revolving chamber which opens to receive the charge of powder. On the otherside of the barrel is a cavity, covered by a spring lid, in which the bullet is placed. The powder and bullet having thus been inserted, a lever nearly a foot long is raised, and this simple act, by ingeniously contrived mechanism adjusts the charge in place, primes the gun and cocks it ready for firing. Thus this old gun, manufactured by hand in the Sixteenth century, could be loaded and fired nearly as rapidly as some of the crack rifles of the present day. The gun bears the maker's name "Johh Cookson fecit" but not the place of manufacture, though it is inferred that John Cookson must have been of Bristol extraction and it is probable that this ancient and ingenious weapon was fabricated on England's soil.

Mr. Melchoir also exhibits a very small pocket edition of a six-chambered revolver, with steel barrel and ivory handle, which shoots a No. 1 cartridge and yet is only 3½ inches in length, stock included. This little weapon is, however, the very opposite of the old rifle, in that it is one of the newest things out.

LIVER PILLS

FOR THE CURE OF

Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side, sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with sick; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

ACUE AND FEVER

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled.

Here is what they say:

"In construction of our work, we use Patent Wheels, Hand-made Wheels, Sarven's best Patent Wheels. We use only Refined Iron. We use the best of Sweede and Norway Iron Bolts. We use the best Oil-tempered Springs, which are all warranted to us. We use the best Case-Hardened Solid Collar Axle, Sheldon's make, Anchor brand. We use the best of Top Leather, also Fancy Colored Trimming Leather and best of Cloth. All Top Linings are p re woolen goods, and not half cotton or shoddy. We stitch all Tops by hand, and nail none. We use concealed joints in all Tops. We use Steel Bow sockets, also Wood Bows. We mitre all corners. All woodwork is thoroughly put together, Glue and Screws only being used. We use Hard wood for all Frames. We use the best Seasoned Hickory in all Gearings. In Trimmings we are excelled by none; and in Painting we use Standard Colors, and finish with the best English Varnish.

We claim that we manufacture a better style, and a more superior finished vehicle throughout, for the price, than any other house in the United States. We except none.

All our Top buggies are made with Shifting Rails, and can be readily changed to Open Buggies. All our Tops are so adjusted as to fit any other like vehicle of our manufacture."

These are no auction buggies. They are standard, and are satisfactorily guaranteed. I am instructed to close them out as soon as possible to get value. Come early and often for bargains.

VEST POCKET CURE
25 DYSPEPSIA 25
CLERGY & DOCTORS TESTE.

Rev. Dr. Mangum, Prof. Univ. of N. C. I concur with Bishop Doggett in his estimate of the Vest Pocket Cure.

Rev. Drs. Jeter, Broaddus, Dickinson, (Bap.) It is indorsed by the direct personal testimony of men of national fame and strictness of speech. It is not too much to say that no medicine ever had such support in its favor as a specific. The word of any one of the eminent divines who underwrite this antidote to dyspepsia has deserved weight. Their united witness joined with the experimental use and approval of the preparation by well-known physicians, removes all doubt. It is beyond question, a wonderful therapeutical agent.—Editors Religious Herald, Va.

Chaplain Randolph Macon College, Va. Many cases of Dyspepsia within my knowledge have been cured by it. Cramps, Colics Headaches and all sorts of pains from indigestion yield promptly to it. The cures of this sort are innumerable.

Rev. R. L. Dabney, LL. D., Col. Va. It is highly esteemed here by the regular Medical Faculty and the people. It is excellent for indigestion and flatulent colic, sedative, soporific, tonic, slightly aperient, without nausea.

Rev. B. F. Woodward, P. E., Va. Cont. About twelve years I suffered from Dyspepsia. Failing in with this remedy, I gave it a fair trial. After its use I could eat anything with impunity. I am sure I am indebted to this medicine for what of health and physical comfort I have had for the last sixteen years. I have known many since to be relieved by its use.

Rev. Robert W. Watts, A. M., Va. I have used the mixture in my family for years, and have taken it for a Dyspepsia Colic, which threatened my life, and was cured, eating any diet without hurt. I have recommended it to other sufferers with happiest results. It is the best tonic and corrective I ever knew. For prostration from Dyspepsia or Liver Disease it is invaluable.

J. D. Eggleston, M. D., Va. It is a highly valuable remedy, and is more extensively used than any single article in the whole list of medicines, so far as I observed in my practice, for all the complaints in familie from indigestion. I use it and recommend it.

Editor Richmond Christian Advocate. This remedy is of tried virtue. I have seen Dyspepsia cured completely by it. It seems to be an antidote to our National Disease." The ingredients are not kept by the apothecaries, and have been difficult to get.

Price 25 cents per bottle. Sold by all druggists. In Raleigh, by Mean Competition.

Since the introduction of Patapsco Baking Powder on the market and the complete revolution it has effected in the trade, venders of unreliable powders have sought to sell their goods on the popularity of Patapsco by claiming the same popularity. Don't believe them: Stick to what you know to be good.

The lady city editor of the Dubuque Times says: One of the greatest mysteries to us is why a fashionable young lady will turn up her nose, throw out coarse insinuations or snub an old gentleman who smokes Durham's best tobacco in a clay pipe, while in five minutes after she will blow, simper, giggle, smile and say sweet things for an hour at a time to some well-dressed fop who leans over to yard her smoking a poor three cent cigar.

What is Hay Fever?

This fashionable disorder is supposed to be an affection of the mucous membrane of the nose. They say that Henry's Carbolic salve will cure it if used freely and persistently. Give it a trial. Beware of counterfeits.

No More Hard Times.

If you will stop spending so much on fine clothes, rich food and style, buy good, healthy food, cheaper and better clothing; get more real and substantial things of life every way, and especially stop the foolish habit of employing expensive, quack doctors or using so much of the vile humbug medicine that does you only harm, but put your trust in that simple, pure remedy, Hop Bitters; that cures always at a trifling cost, and you will see good times and have good health. RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 12th 1879

MRS. SUE NELSON.—MADAME: I take pleasure in stating that I have used your "Cherokee Cough Cure," in my family, and find it to be one of best cough remedies I ever tried. I cheerfully recommend it to all who are suffering from coughs, colds, sore throat, etc., as a positive curative unsurpassed by any cough medicine I have ever used. Respectfully,

Why Will You

Allow a cold to advance in your system and thus encourage more serious maladies, such as Pneumonia, Hemorrhages and Lung troubles when an immediate relief can be so readily attained. Boschee's German Syrup has gained the largest sale in the world for the cure of Cough, Colds and the severest Lung Diseases. It is Dr. Boschee's famous German prescription, ane is prepared with the greatest care, and no fear need be entertained in administering it to the youngest child, as per directions. The sale of this medicine is unprecedented. Since first introduced there has been a constant increasing demand and without a single report of a failure to do its work in any case. Ask your Druggist as to the truth of these remarks. Large size 75 cents. Try it and be convinced.

Loss of Appetite, Bowels costive, Pain in the Head, with a dull sensation in the back part, Pain under the shoulder-blade, fullness after eating, with a disinclination to exertion of body or mind, Irritability of temper, Low spirits, with a feeling of having neglected some duty, Weariness, Dizziness, Fluttering at the Heart, Dots before the eyes, Yellow Skin, Headache generally over the right eye, Restlessness with fitful dreams, highly colored Urine.

IF THESE WARNINGS ARE UNHEEDED, SERIOUS DISEASES WILL SOON BE DEVELOPED.

TUTT'S PILLS are especially adapted to such cases, one dose effects such a change of feeling as to astonish the sufferer.

CONSTIPATION.

Only with regularity of the bowels can perfect health be enjoyed. If the constipation is of recent date, a single dose of TUTT'S PILLS will suffice, but if it has become habitual, one pill should be taken every night, gradually lessening the frequency of the dose until a regular daily movement is obtained, which will soon follow.

Dr. I. Guy Lewis, Tailor, Ark., says:

"After a practice of 25 years, I pronounce TUTT'S PILLS the best anti-bilious medicine ever made."

Rev. F. R. Oggon, New York, says:

"I have had Dyspepsia, Weak Stomach and Nervousness. I never had any medicine to do me so much good as TUTT'S PILLS. They are as good as represented."

VEGETINE

Behold Me a Well Woman.

CANCER.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 26, 1878.

H. R. STEVENS, BOSTON.

DEAR SIR:—I have for years been a sufferer from a dreadful CANCER in my side which caused me untold agony, and as I am a widow with a family dependent upon my exertions for a support, my pain of body was only equalled by my pain of mind, at seeing my children want for bread. I was presented by a kind friend in Cincinnati with half a dozen bottles of Vegetine, and although one bottle is still untouched, behold me a well woman, completely restored in body and mind, and able to perform my accustomed duties. Long may you live! and may the history of my wonderful cure lead other like sufferers to purchase your valuable medicine, if it is with the last cent they possess.

Yours gratefully,
MRS. FULLER SUTT.

GOODMAN, MISS., May 6, 1878.

H. R. STEVENS, BOSTON:

I have been suffering for 25 years with the Piles and found but little relief from any medicine that I have taken for many years past. Last winter I suffered considerably worse than ever before, also in connection with Rheumatism I was confined to my bed for several weeks. Having procured a bottle of Vegetine I took it with good effect. I continued the use, and after taking four or five bottles, find myself comparatively cured. I can cheerfully recommend it for the benefits that I have received from it.

Yours respectfully,
J. W. TAGGART.

H. R. STEVENS, BOSTON:

I take great pleasure in recommending your Vegetine. I have been suffering for a long time with the Lung Disease; trying every kind of medicine that I could get, but none seemed to do me any good, until I tried your great Vegetine remedy. I had used it only a short time before I could discover a very great change in my health for the better. I don't consider that your medicine has its equal, for the diseases which you propose to cure, especially the disease that I have been afflicted with

LOCAL BRIEFS.

—Weather warmer.

—Rainy and muddy.

—No northern mail received last night.

—The sound of the turkey is daily heard.

—Revenue receipts yesterday $728,47.

—Only one marrige license issued yesterday.

—Cotton 12¼ to 12⅝ for middling; low middling 12 to 12¼. Quiet.

—Mr. J. A. Bragassa is confined to his room by severe indisposition.

—The Old Folks' Concert at Peace Institute to-night. Be sure and attend.

—Don't forget to settle your taxes. The Sheriff's books are open-daily at his office.

—Messrs. Bingham & Wagstaff have begun the manufacture of tobacco in this city.

—The Concert at Peace Institute to-night will be the most attractive feature of the day.

—The volume of business transacted in this city this fall is greater than it has ever been.

—Mr. Job Osborne has just received a car load of Oats, which he is now offering at low prices.

—The Sheriff of Randolph county paid into the treasury yesterday $5,828.-48, being his State taxes for 1879.

—A letter for Mr. George Sworn, South Carolina, "in haste" is held in this post office, for lack of proper postage.

—The first number of the Spark, published at Littleton, N. C., has made its appearance. Success to it. May it never grow dim.

—The double set of harness, put up by Messrs. E. F. Wyatt & Son for the Rescue Fire Company, reflects great credit upon the firm.

—Tickets to Peace Institute in demand, and for sale at Heartt's drug-store. An unusually large and fashionable audience is expected.

—Mrs. J. W. Watson and family left the city yesterday for Eufaula, Ala., to join Mr. Watson who thinks of making that place his future home.

—The presentation of the Old Folks Concert at Peace Institute to-night is looked forward to with much interest by the music loving public.

—Martin and Wilmington streets were lined with cotton wagons all of yesterday. Our cotton buyers are paying good prices and the farmers are happy.

—The press of business still continues on the R. & A. R. R. Builders in this this city complain heavily of not being able to carry out their contracts on account of the failure of the road to transport their lumber from the mills.

—Messrs. Rand & Barbee Bros. are making a special transaction in flour and are prepared to offer unusual inducements to merchants. They are now receiving six hundred barrels, which was bought before the rise and is offered at a low price. This enterprising firm is one of the largest flour houses in the State.

Skating To-Night.

The rink will be open to-night. Young gentlemen will please remember that they are expected to bring the ladies with them.

Christmas Presents.

Cotton is bringing a good price. Trade is reviving in all branches and everybody will expect a present of some kind at Christmas and you will surely find something suitable among the many beautiful things at Alfred Williams & Co.'s Bookstore.

Married.

Last evening at 6:30 o'clock, at Wake Forest College, Professor N. Y. Gulley, of this city, was united in marriage to Miss Alice Wingate, daughter of the late Dr. Wingate. The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. W. R. Royall, after which they boarded the train for Raleigh, their future home. May happiness attend them.

The Osborn House.

Mrs. C. D. Osborn has rented and will open the Cooke Hotel on the 1st of January, naming it the Osborne House. She is the wife of Mr. C. D. Osborn, who ran the National Hotel in this city last year. He will have charge of the business of the house, and will be pleased to have his friends call upon him.

Unmailable Letters.

The following letters are held in the office in this city for the reasons assigned:

Mrs. Loh Clarke, No. 66 West street, Georgetown. No State.

Doward Borkom, care Ransom Perry, Johnston county, N. C. No office.

Madison Peace, care Charles Williams, Kittrells, N. C. No stamp.

Miss Sallie Mitchel, New Berne, N. C. P'k'y Notch at end. Not sufficient postage.

Reunion Postponed.

Colonel Turner desires us to state that in response to the suggestion that a reunion of the Branch-Lane Brigade should take place on Wednesday the 17th of December at Raleigh, he has received many replies enthusiastically approving the call. Among the replies is one from General Lane, who expresses himself as anxious to attend, but regrets that he will not be able to come at that time because of pressing business engagements. Because it is so desirable that General Lane should be present, as will as for other reasons, it is now suggested that the proposed meeting be postponed until after the holidays, and during the interval, General Lane may be able to name a day in January when he can be present.

Papers in the State are requested to call attention to this change.

We are in receipt of the Catalogue of Bingham School for 1879. The number for the current session (the 171st) is 50 per cent. ahead of the last and 25 per cent ahead of any former Session. Every Southern State, we believe is represented and also New York and Wisconsin, Brazil and Siam. The catalogue claims that the culture of the faculty is broader, the discipline and instruction better, the satisfaction given to pupil and patron greater, than ever before. The Prize and Scholarship features are new and so is a Leipzig Ph. D. among the teachers of a Southern School. The increase from 103 in 1876, 122 in 1877, 142 in 1778 to 166 in 1879, is very significant. Board is $12 per month. Tuition, $5) per Session. See advertisement.

Pill Box.

I offer for sale my running horse Pill Box, who came from the plow last August, having made a crop, and ran with 2 weeks' handling against trained thoroughbred race horses of reputation, beating them in half mile, mile and two miles races, at the Raleigh and Weldon fairs. He is a bright bay, fine form, and remarkably stylish, and is a most excellent saddle and double harness horse, is (6) six years passed, perfectly sound. Also Flora and Dora, a pair dark bay mares, aged 5 and 6, of beautiful form, a match in color, size, and gait, sound, and not at all afraid of cars—an excellent coach team. And lastly Jack and Jim, a pair of bright bays, 6 and 8 years old. Jack is a bad runaway horse; Jim will not only run but kicks. This team is warranted as represented; special inducements will be offered a buyer. All at J. D. Whitaker's wood, coal and lumber yard, West Hargett St.

Make a Note of This.

Professor Green, a distinguished allopathic physician, wrote to the Medical Journal to the effect that after all other means had failed he sent for the Kidney Cure, (now Safe Kidney and Liver Cure), and to his astonishment cured a serious case of Bright's Disease by administering it, and afterward found it equally beneficial in other cases. He advised his brother physicians to use it in preference to anything else for kidney diseases.

What Physicians at Home and Abroad Think of the Seven Springs Iron and Alum Mass.

In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chlorosis, Anæmia, Nervous and Muscular Debility, Nervous and Sick Headache, Dysmenorrhœa, Menorrhagia, Amenorrhœa, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder and such like organic or functional disturbances, I know of no remedy upon which I can rely with more certainty of satisfactory results than the "Seven Springs Mass."

W. F. BARR, M. D.,
Abingdon, Va.

I have found no one single remedy to yield such satisfactory results as the "Seven Springs Mass." In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Anæmia, Chlorosis, and for Chronic Eczema, I find it invaluable, associated with appropriate topical treatment.

GEO. T. HARRISON, M. D.,
New York City.

From my experience with the "Iron and Alum Mass," I believe it will prove the best medicine we have in use, for chronic diseases.

G. M. D. PATTERSON, M. D.,
Eaglewood, Texas.

For Dyspepsia, Ulcerations of the Throat, Inflammation of the Neck of the Bladder, Leucorrhœa, etc., the "Seven Springs Mass" seems to act with almost specific effect.

E. O. GRIGSBY,
DeView, Ark.

We could extend this list into the thousands with such testimonials from physicians from every State in the Union, but these are sufficient to indicate its application. The reputation of the remedy is too widely known to waste words upon its character. In ordering from druggists always mention Seven Springs Mass. Price $1 per package or six for $5, sent by mail, postpaid.

THE SUN FOR 1880.

THE SUN will deal with the events of the year 1880 in its own fashion, now pretty well understood by everybody. From January 1st until December 31st it will be conducted as a newspaper, written in the English language, and printed for the people.

As a newspaper, the SUN believes in getting all the news of the world promptly, and presenting it in the most intelligible shape—the shape that will enable its readers to keep well abreast of the age with the least unproductive expenditure of time. The greatest interest to the greatest number—that is the law controlling its daily make-up. It now has a circulation very much larger than that of any other American newspaper, and enjoys an income which it is at all times prepared to spend liberally for the benefit of its readers. People of all conditions of life and all ways of thinking buy and read THE SUN; and they all derive satisfaction of some sort from its columns, for they keep on buying and reading it.

In its comments on men and affairs, THE SUN believes that the only guide of policy should be common sense, inspired by genuine American principles and backed by honesty of purpose. For this reason it is, and will continue to be, absolutely independent of party, class, clique, organization, or interest. It is for all, but of none. It will continue to praise what is good and reprobate what is evil, taking care that its language is to the point and plain, beyond the possibility of being misunderstood. It is uninfluenced by motives that do not appear on the surface; it has no opinions to sell, save those which may be had by any purchaser with two cents. It hates injustice and rascality even more than it hates unnecessary words. It abhors frauds, pities fools, and deplores nincompoops of every species. It will continue throughout the year 1880 to establish the first class, instruct the second, and discountenance the third. All honest men, with honest convictions, whether sound or mistaken are its friends. And THE SUN makes no bones of telling the truth to its friends and about its friends whenever occasion arises for plain speaking.

These are the principles upon which THE SUN will be conducted during the year to come.

The year 1880 will be one in which no patriotic American can afford to close his eyes to public affairs. It is impossible to exaggerate the importance of the political events which it has in store, or the necessity of resolute vigilance on the part of every citizen who desires to preserve the Government that the founders gave us. The debates and acts of Congress, the utterances of the press, the exciting contests of the Republican and Democratic parties, now nearly equal in strength throughout the country, the varying drift of public sentiment, will all bear directly and effectively upon the twenty fourth Presidential election, to be held in November. Four years ago next November the will of the nation, as expressed at the polls, was thwarted by an abominable conspiracy, the promoters and beneficiaries of which still hold the offices they stole. Will the crime of 1876 be repeated in 1880? The past decade of years opened with a corrupt, extravagant, and insolent Administration intrenched at Washington. THE SUN did something toward dislodging the gang and breaking its power. The same men are now intriguing to restore their leader and themselves to places from which they were driven by the indignation of the people. Will they succeed? The coming year will bring the answers to these momentous questions. THE SUN will be on hand to chronicle the facts as they are developed, and to exhibit them clearly and fearlessly in their relations to expediency and right.

Thus, with a habit of philosophical good humor in looking at the minor affairs of life, and in great things a steadfast purpose to maintain the rights of the people and the principles of the Constitution against all aggressors, THE SUN is prepared to write a truthful, instructive, and at the same time entertaining history of 1880.

Our rates of subscription remain unchanged. For the Daily SUN, a four-page sheet of twenty-eight columns, the price by mail, post-paid, is 55 cents a month, or $6.50 a year; or, including the Sunday paper, an eight-page sheet of fifty-six columns, the price is 65 cents a month, or $7 70 a year, postage paid.

The Sunday edition of THE SUN is also furnished separately at $1 20 a year, postage paid.

The price of the WEEKLY SUN, eight pages, fifty-six columns, is $1 a year, postage paid. For clubs of ten sending $10 we will send an extra copy free.
